From Saturday February 5. to Tuesday February 8. 1736.

Dresden, January 30.

M. Ozarowski, who was sent Minister from King Staniſlaus to the Court of France immediately after he was elected King of Poland, is arrived here, and has been very well received. M. Domski, one of the Commiſſioners for the ſelling of King Staniſlaus's Eſtates in Poland, is ſet out from this Place for France, to make Report of what has paſſed hitherto in the Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion. The lateſt Accounts from the Palatinates of Cracow, Sendomir, and Siradia, as likewiſe from Great Poland, mention the great Scarcity of Corn which augments daily. The Peaſants in great Numbers retire into Sileſia, where the Scarcity likewiſe increaſes; and the King of Pruſſia has ordered that they ſhould not be received in his Country.

Copenhagen, Feb. 2, N. S. The laſt Storm has blown down the high Spire of the Church of St. Nicholas at Elſenore, which was a very uſeful Sea Mark, both for guiding Ships into the Sound, and for directing them by its bearing with other Points, when to let fall their Topſails in Honour of the Fortreſs of Cronenburg. Major General Pretorius is returned from Berlin, and was received in a gracious Manner by the King of Denmark.

Berlin, Feb. 9, N. S. M. Brackel having received no Anſwer to his Memorial, by which he claimed the Ruſſian Subjects in the Pruſſian Troops, he renewed thoſe Inſtances a few Days ago, and inſiſted, by order of his Court, on his Pruſſian Majeſty's explaining himſelf upon that Demand of the Czarina his Miſtreſs. We have had an Account here, that on the 23d of laſt Month died at his Epiſcopal See the Biſhop of Augsbourg, younger Brother to the Elector Palatine. This Incident has not yet produced any new Reſolutions of this Court, with reſpect to the Succeſſion of Bergues and Juliers; but it is probable it will accelerate the Meaſures that are taking on that Affair.

Hague, Feb. 15, N. S. The States of Holland have been aſſembled theſe three Days, and have under Conſideration the Military Eſtimates and Eſtabliſhments for the current Year; and alſo the Differences between the Towns of Dort and Gorcom, upon the Project formed ſome Time ago for increaſing the Waters of the Maeſe in the Neighbourhood of Dort. As to the Choice of their Penſionary, and the filling up of other vacant Employments, they ſeem reſolved to keep them in Reſerve till their ordinary Meeting next Month. The laſt Advices from the Rhine, are, that the French are actually evacuating the Places they are to reſtore.
